

Life of Pi

Write a review of the film. It can be the film which you have seen recently, or your favourite film or an imaginary film. Explain why you like or don't like the film, and why your friend should or shouldn't watch it.

My favourite film is called "Life of Pi". The film which is a survival drama was released in 2012. It is based on a novel by Yann Martell and tells the story of an Indian boy called Pi who drifts on a boat with a Bengal tiger in the Pacific Ocean.

The story begins when Pi's father who owns a hotel and a little zoo in India decides to go to Canada by sea. The Pi's family must take the animals with them. During the trip, there is a terrible storm, and Pi is the only family member who survives it. In the morning on the next day, he finds himself in the boat with a zebra, hyena, a monkey and a tiger. In the end, the tiger, Richard Parker, becomes his only friend during their long sea journey until one day they see the land.

The film is full of suspense because in real life a hungry tiger would probably kill a human being. There are fantastic pictures of the sea and very thrilling scenes with the tiger. The directing is superb.

I liked the film and I strongly recommend it to anyone. It is suitable for the children.
