

An e-mail from California

Write an email to a friend about your trip to London.

Dear Christina,

I am currently in San Diego on holiday with my family. We arrived yesterday from San Francisco by plane. We have been here for two weeks, and I am having the most fantastic time of my life. San Diego is the second biggest cities in California, not far from Mexico.

During our first week, we did some sightseeing in the morning, and I spent every afternoon at the beach. My parents really love sightseeing. It is okay but walking in the sun makes you very tired. We went to Balboa Park. It is a big area with parks, gardens, theatres, museums and the famous San Diego Zoo. I love watching animals, so I could spend hours there, but my mum wanted to go to San Diego Museum of Art. On the way to the museum, we bumped into Angelina Jolie and her children. I couldn't believe my luck. I took a selfie with her. She was extremely friendly, and I will never forget her, or that day.

Obviously, we went shopping, too, because we wanted to get some nice presents for my friends back at home. Shops in America are usually very big, and it takes a lot of time to shop. Besides, you know how indecisive I am. Of course, I got you a nice gift, and I hope you will like it. I will give it to you when I'm back in Vienna.

See you soon. Love

Angelica