My best journey

Camping at Bodensee

My best trip ever was at Bodensee with my brother and father last year. We set off very early in the morning. We got on the train and it took us almost seven hours to get to Bregenz which is on the other end of Austria.

We arrived at the camping site late in the evening, and we had to put up our tent. It took us one hour. Then my father made a campfire and we cooked sausages for dinner.

We were lucky to have beautiful weather there. Every day we went fishing in the morning. I didn't like it very much, I found it a bit boring. In the afternoon we went swimming in the lake or hiking in the woods. I soon made friends with a lot of children who were at the campsite. We often played football or hide-and-peek together.

The highlight of our trip was a morning ride on our bikes along the lake. We were alone in the woods. When we stopped for lunch we saw a big Zeppelin, a kind of airship, in the sky. It was a fantastic view. Later, that day, we visited a place where Zeppelins take off and land. I would like to fly it one day.
