My favourite singer

My favourite singer is ED SHEERAN. He was born in 1991 in England and is a famous English singer, songwriter and record producer.

He started his music career at four when he sang in a church choir. When he was a teenager he learnt to play the guitar and started to write songs. Early in his career, he performed on the streets of Dublin, in Ireland, and in other places.

In 2011, he released his first album called "Plus", in 2014 his second album "Multiply", and in 2017 his third album called "Divide". His first song "The A Team" reached number three on the UK music charts.

The third album was very successful and reached number one both in the UK and the USA, and the songs "Shape of You" reached number one and "Castle on the Hill" reached number two on the English and German single charts.

Ed Sheeran is very successful (erfolgreich). He and his songs have received many nominations and awards both in England and abroad. In 2014 he won the "British Artist of the Year" award, and in 2018 his album "Divide" won the Grammy Award as the Best Pop Vocal Album of the Year.

I like the singer because he has not only catchy songs but he also cares about his fans. He often gives away his clothes to charity institutions.
